

Croatia Euro Adoption

On January 1, 2023, Croatia will adopt the euro (EUR) as its official currency, replacing the Croatian kuna (HRK). In accordance with this transition, the currency for App Store, iCloud+, Apple Music, Apple Arcade, and Podcast Subscriptions purchases in Croatia will change from HRK to EUR starting January 1, 2023.

After the currency change occurs, any subscriptions will be billed in EUR. All refunds requested after January 1, 2023 will be refunded in EUR, regardless of the date of purchase.

Apple will use the statutory fixed conversion rate of 7.53450 HRK = 1.00000 EUR established on July 12, 2022 by the Council of the European Union in connection to the introduction of EUR as the official currency in the Republic of Croatia.

The table below shows the HRK and equivalent EUR prices of Apple Music, Apple Arcade, and iCloud+. Apple Arcade and iCloud+ prices will be reduced as part of the transition.
