

NOTICE FROM APPLE

For the purposes of Accidental Damage from Handling coverage ("ADH") coverage and Theft and Loss coverage ("T&L") (collectively, the "Cover"), Apple is a group purchasing body and has arranged this ADH coverage through a group insurance policy issued to Apple by AIG ("Master Policy").

The applicable AC+ terms set out which Apple devices may benefit from the Cover and the requirements for receiving the Cover (the "Terms"). In addition, general factual information about the Cover is set out in the applicable Accidental Damage from Handling Product Disclosure Statement ("PDS").

Please read this information carefully. Should you require it, Apple will provide you with a printed copy of the applicable PDS and the Terms free of charge if you contact Apple at 1300 321 456.

Apple is not the issuer of the Cover and does not guarantee any benefits under the Master Policy. AIG reimburses Apple for any administrative costs necessarily incurred by Apple to ensure the Cover is issued or available to you. You, however, are a beneficiary under the Master Policy. This means that subject to the Terms, any claim in relation to the Cover will be covered and paid by AIG. AIG has appointed and authorised Apple and any applicable third party to deal with any ADH claims. Claims in respect of T&L will be dealt with by AIG.

Apple does not hold an Australian financial services license. Apple is not authorised to provide any financial advice in respect of the Cover. You should consider obtaining Your own financial product advice about the Cover from a person who is able to give such advice under an Australian Financial Services License.

If the Master Policy is terminated, AIG will continue to meet claims for the Cover specified in the applicable PDS and Terms provided that (i) You have purchased Your Plan prior to termination of the Master Policy; and (ii) Your claim is made within the duration of Your Plan. Apple will give You prior written notice if the Master Policy ends but does not need to notify You if substantially similar cover applies or will apply for such period (or remainder of such period). If You are not provided with such notice, Apple is liable to compensate You for any loss or damage You may suffer as a result of Apple's failure to notify You. You can verify the status of Your Cover by contacting Apple at 1300 321 456.
